Halloween

There are many stories about where Halloween comes from. Halloween is a very old holiday derived from Celtic cultures.

A long time ago, the 31st of October was a night for witches.

In the past, many people used to wear costumes to scare away the evil spirits. Today, more people celebrate Halloween by dressing up in costumes of evil creatures and children go from house to house asking for candy.

ANSWERS THESE QUESTIONS!

Are you happy or are you sad?

Does music make you happy?

What is your favourite song?

Does laughter make you happy?

Is summer a happy season or a sad season?

Do you like summer or do you prefer another season?

Do children make you happy?

... being evil can be sooo much fun. So aren't you just a bit jealous, that I can be evil... And don't you want to be a little evil too. It is really fun... You should try it. Hey! Do you know who you can start to be evil with? ...

DURING THE SHOW:

I AM SOMETHING NO ONE UNDERSTANDS. SOMETHING THAT DOESN'T HAVE A NAME. SOMETHING YOU NEVER THOUGHT ABOUT. I AM WHAT YOU SEE NOW AND WHAT YOU SEE IS REALLY NOTHING.

To think about Evil is to think about darkness and some people see darkness as something negative. They forget the beauty that darkness can give them.

It is not easy to be a monster... a creep... In English a creep is like a monster... The word creep comes from the verb to creep...
